

DISTRICT ENGINEER WIDEFIELD WATER & SANITATION DISTRICT

Widefield Water & Sanitation District is located in the southern portion of Colorado Springs, Colorado, and is dedicated to providing the highest quality of water to our community and our environment. The District is currently seeking a licensed District Engineer (PE) with a minimum of 3 years of experience in planning, designing, reviewing, coordinating and project managing water and/or wastewater projects or systems. This is a new position within the District and the person hired will have a major role in formulating this new position.

A Bachelor of Science degree in Civil or Environmental Engineering is required. Also required is a licensed professional engineer in the State of Colorado or the ability to be eligible to be licensed through application by reciprocity within no less than six months from date of hire and to be insurable under the District's standards.

Any combination that includes the necessary Professional Engineer license and relevant experience in water and/or wastewater utilities will be considered.

Colorado Springs was ranked the #2 most desirable place to live in a recent survey conducted by U.S. News and World Report and is an incredible place to call home. Majestic destinations including Pikes Peak, Garden of the Gods and the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo provide residents with great local opportunities to hike, bike and enjoy nature. If you are a sports enthusiast, Colorado Springs offers many sporting event options.

The starting salary will be market competitive, depending on the experience and qualifications of the selected individual. In addition, the District expects to provide an excellent fringe benefit package to the successful candidate. Reasonable relocation expenses provided to successful candidate.
